

Kai Chan

Kai Chan has exhibited his work across Canada, the United States, Japan, Australia and Europe. His solo exhibition, "Rainbow Lakes" began in 2002, traveled to 8 public galleries across Canada. "Kai Chan: Spider's Logic", a 35 years retrospective exhibition beginning in 2010 is touring to 6 cities. He has received numerous grants from the Canada Council and the Ontario Arts Council as well as several prestigious awards including the Jean A. Chalmers National Crafts Award [1998], and the Prix Saidye Bronfman Award for Excellence in the Crafts [2002].